

84 Lumber Participates in the Yearly Las Vegas, NV Home Builders Show in January 2013

National Association of Home Builders

NAHB International Builders' Show®
January 22-24, 2013 • Las Vegas

The National Association of Home Builders Show is a yearly event held in January in Las Vegas, NV. This show consists of the latest technology in over 300 various building categories. This show allows for hands-on demonstrations, working models and a vast amount of workshops for new builders just starting in the industry to professional, seasoned builders. Over 50,000 attendees from more than 100 countries are expected to join the event.

84 Lumber Company has secured a booth to participate in the extravagant show. In conjunction with renting a booth, 84 Lumber has also reserved a meeting room for invited guests to join for more one on one time.

Read more about 84 Lumber's International current and upcoming projects at www.84internationalsales.com