

84 Lumber Goes Hog Wild in Mexico

84 Lumber Company has provided material for more than just residential or commercial purposes. The director of World Trade, Mark Reginelli, and his team have also supplied material to Pueblo, Mexico for an agricultural project to build Hog Farms. 84 Lumber supplied roof trusses, fasteners and steel mesh for concrete cellulose insulation. We have shipped over 8 agricultural projects.

84 Lumber understands the importance of being able to accommodate a customer no matter the distance or need. We are here to service you and whatever project you may have.
